Call to Worship

Psalm 24:1-10

Jeff Jacobsen

The earth is the LORD's and the fullness thereof, the world and those who dwell therein, for He has founded it upon the seas and established it upon the rivers.

Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in His holy place?
He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully.

He will receive blessing from the LORD and righteousness from the God of his salvation.
Such is the generation of those who seek Him, who seek the face of the God of Jacob. Selah Lift up your heads, O gates! And be lifted up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in. Who is this King of glory?

The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle!

Lift up your heads, O gates! And lift them up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in. Who is this King of glory?
The LORD of hosts, He is the King of glory!

Call to Confession

Pastor Casey Cramer

Prayer of Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Hebrews 4:14-16

Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

NOTES

OUR LITURGY

Sunday worship is when we gather to experience "all of life in an hour." We are called into existence by God in the call to worship, we die to our sin in the confession, we give thanks to God in our offerings, we are taught His ways in the reading and the sermon and we are nourished as we celebrate the past and future feast of God in the Lord's Supper.† We do all this as individuals, as a family, and as the people of God together.

† On Communion Sundays, all baptized communicants and members of the household of God are invited to join us in this holy meal. We provide a sealed double-sided chalice containing a wafer and grape juice.
